1. Purpose

The Intellectual Property and Copyright Policy is intended to guide the academic staff and course offices to ensure adherence to the intellectual property and copyright laws (both local and global). The policy is directly relevant to and supports the learning, teaching, research and scholarship endeavours of S P Jain School of Global Management (S P Jain).

2. Scope

This Policy applies to all employees, both academic and non-academic, and students of S P Jain.

3. Policy Principles

The following policy principles shall apply:

- a. Authors will be given full credit for their work, and retain intellectual proprietary rights and copyrights;
- b. Members of staff and students can make their published work/material available voluntarily for internal use by donation to the library;
- c. Where the materials produced are the result of specific assignments by S P Jain, the institution will retain the right to determine the ownership of any copyright;
- d. S P Jain owns the copyrights to all multimedia, electronic and computer-based instructional materials produced and delivered by staff during their employment with S P Jain and as an outcome of their job. S P Jain retains the right to reproduce, update, distribute, transmit, and/or alter the course materials so produced;

- e. Acknowledgement of S P Jain should be made for all intellectual proprietary work produced by the staff, and
- f. Staff should not include any content that constitutes libel, invasion of privacy, infringement of copyright or literary rights or otherwise violate the legal rights of any other person.

4. Use of material produced by others

- a. For all copyright clearance, staff of S P Jain should approach concerned copyright owners. If staff need any clarifications or assistance, they should seek guidance from the librarian.
- b. Publishers usually authorise individuals to copy material for private research use. This authorisation does not usually extend to any other kind of copying.

5. Teaching Notes/Instructor's Manual /Textbooks

Textbooks are normally accompanied with an instructor manual. Photocopying or use of these manuals for use by students is prohibited.

6. Fair Use Policy

a. Books:

A chapter of a book or no more than 10% of the book can be copied for personal use. For classroom use, S P Jain is covered under regional copyright licenses in Sydney and Singapore for educational/teaching use of resources purchased. Outside of this or for general distribution, permission from the copyright owners is required.

- i. eBooks: Purchase of eBook single user licenses cannot be distributed to multiple users. Access of eBooks via library cannot be made without the correct access licence or prior permission of copyright owners.
- ii. Content of eBooks cannot be reproduced, posted or distributed in form without permission of copyright owners.

b. Software:

i. Usage restrictions:

- Circulation of archival copy
- “Networking” software without license or permission
- Loading a single copy of a software program onto several computers for simultaneous use (unless so authorised by the owners)
- Making copies of copyrighted software for student use.
- Perpetual license verses annual license.

c. Databases and E-journals:

- i. Agreement should be made by designated staff with concerned content providers of e-journals and databases for multi-user, campus wide unlimited access.
- ii. Employees of S P Jain should not disclose any user id and password to outsiders.
